Whitehall, June 20.

YEsterday his Grace the Duke of Roxburghe received the following Account from Major-General Wightman by Expreſs.

Glenſhell, June 11, 8 a-Clock in the Morning. Yeſterday I marched from Strachlony to the Head of Glenſhell, a conſiderable Paſs which I was told the Enemy had reſolved to defend; but upon my Approach they deſerted that Poſt, and retired to cover their Camp, which was at another very ſtrong Paſs called Strachell. I gave them no Time, but immediately viewed their Situation, and having made my Diſpoſition began my Attack about Five in the Afternoon, and a warm Diſpute was maintained till paſt Eight, when it pleaſed God to give us an entire Victory over them. Their Diſpoſitions for Defence were extraordinary, with the Advantages of Rocks, Mountains, and Intrenchments; but the firm Reſolution of the King's Troops overcame all Difficulties, and we beat them through the Rocks and Paſſes quite over the Mountains, though we were not above half their Number. I marched this Morning to Glenſhell where I now am, and where a Spaniſh Officer is come to me with a Propoſition from the Spaniards to ſurrender as Priſoners at Diſcretion, which I have granted them, and they are to come into our Camp at Two a-Clock this Afternoon. This Spaniſh Officer tells me, that the late Lords Seaforth and Mariſhal, with other attainted Perſons imbarked this Morning, and as I now hear great firing from our Men of War, I hope they have met with them: The Officer alſo tells me, that the late Lord Seaforth and Lord George Murray are wounded. I have not yet an exact Account of our killed and wounded, but judge them not to exceed 150, Officers included. By my next I ſhall ſend an exact Liſt of our Loſs. How much the Rebels have ſuffered is not yet perfectly known. Capt. Downes of Coll. Montague's Regiment was killed in the Attack.

Pyrmont, June 13, N. S. His Majeſty continues drinking the Waters, which agree very well with him, and His Majeſty deſigns to leave this Place this Day Sevenight.

Paris, June 24. Letters from the Army commanded by the Marſhal Berwick relate, that on the 9th Inſtant the Prince of Conti found a Letter in his Tent, which it was believed came from Cardinal Alberoni, wherein the Kingdom of Sicily was offered to his Highneſs to tempt him to come over to the Side of Spain. Captain Johnſon with three Britiſh Men of War came into Port Paſſage on the 10th: On the 11th he ſent out ſome Men in Boats, who brought in three Spaniſh Shallops, in one of which were 14 wounded Soldiers that had been ſent out of Fontarabia. He delivered the Priſoners to the Commanding Officer at Port Paſſage, and manned the ſaid Shallops, with which and his own Boats he blocked up the Town by Sea, and prevented the conveighing of any Supplies into it on that Side, till it ſurrendred.

Whitehall, June 19, 1719.

It is their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices Directions, that all the Officers belonging to the Regiments in Great Britain, and included in the following Liſt for being abſent from their Duty, do repair to their reſpective Corps in 21 Days from the Date hereof; and that all thoſe that belong to Regiments and the Independent Company Abroad, do ſet out for their ſeveral Commands in Fourteen Days from this Day, upon Pain of having their Commiſſions given to Half-Pay Officers of the ſame Rank.

By their Excellencies Command,

Geo. Treby.
